GREAT ARMY OF SALVATIONISTS

One Hundred Thousand of Them Packed Into Crystal Palace Yesterday.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, July 5.—Members of the Salvation Army, by the thousands, gathered at the Crystal Palace to-day, from early morning processions, representing the various sections, under the banners of the different nationalities, and led by bands, marched to the palace, and by 10 o'clock the grounds and buildings were over-run. The interest of the day centered in a grand reception to General Booth in the main hall, which was packed. The platform presented a picturesque scene. Representatives of every country were massed in lines under the flags of all nations. General Booth, who was the central figure, was given a tremendous ovation. The attractions of the day included an exhibition by the different sections of the work of the Salvationists. This concluded one of the greatest days in point of numbers ever seen at the Crystal Palace. The attendance was estimated at 100,000 persons.

BRAUER'S IMMOVABLE

Ex-Treasurer Ignores All Requests Made of Him to Return County Books.

JUDGE SCOTT WILL TAKE IT UP

July Term Circuit Court Opens and Two Sunday Liquor Cases Are Concluded.

At the regular meeting of the board of supervisors of Henrico county, held at the courthouse yesterday, Treasurer W. J. Todd was called upon to make his report concerning the books which are now in possession of former treasurer W. H. Brauer. Mr. Todd made his statement, in which he said he had followed out the instructions of the board, and had addressed several communications to Mr. Brauer, all of which had been completely ignored by him.

When seen yesterday regarding the matter, Mr. Todd stated that he had done all that was in his power to induce Mr. Brauer to return the books. The board will now, it is understood, report the status of the case to Judge Scott, of the Circuit Court, who will take some action.

The meeting was devoted to routine business, and there were also several other interesting topics discussed. The plan for issuing dog licenses in the county was given much consideration, and it was suggested to adopt the medal system, which is used in the cities. No definite action was taken in the matter, but it is thought that the plan will meet with high favor and be instituted shortly.

The question of widening the Hermitage road near the Southern Store Works was taken up, and the road was ordered opened at that point. A narrow strip of land there will be thrown into the thoroughfare, making it many feet broader.

The July term of the Circuit Court was opened in Henrico county yesterday, with Judge R. Carter Scott on the bench. A large number of criminal and common law cases were set and three cases were tried before the grand jury.

The case of W. E. Polard, charged with keeping his saloon open after hours, was heard, and he was acquitted by the jury. His case was on an appeal from the magistrate's court.

Richard Washington, a negro, who was placed under a $500 bond to keep the peace, was tried before the jury for having resisted an officer, and was dismissed. Thomas P. Bagley was before the grand jury yesterday on an appeal from the magistrate's court, where he was fined one hundred dollars for keeping his saloon open after 12 o'clock midnight of June 15th. He was acquitted by the jury.

The accused was represented by Edward L. Ryan, and L. O. Wenderberg represented the Commonwealth.

The judge set the following criminal cases for trial, all felonies:

John Brown, Charles Hopkins and John Burns, the latter, three charges against him, July 14th; Bruce Lattimer, three offences, July 14th; Druce Shields, July 14th; Adolphus King, Frederick Shelton and Ernest Lewis, July 14th; Ben Pierce, John Overton and Bud Norris, July 14th; Harry Fisher, July 6th; all colored.

Judge Scott also set the following common law cases for this term:

Tanner Paint and Oil Company vs. Harris, 6; Commonwealth vs. 7; Harrison vs. Chesapeake and Ohio, 8; Road case, 9; Schwartz vs. Commonwealth, 10; Dugan vs. Commonwealth, 11; Straud vs. Commonwealth, 12; Jones vs. Richmond Passenger and Power Company, 13; Nannula M. Cussona vs. Virginia Passenger and Power Company, 14; J. B. Horner vs. American Locomotive Company, L. J. Cheatewood vs. Milton Rice, A. C. Clark vs. C. B. Fitzwilliam, J. S. Parish vs. Friends' administrator, 19; J. B. Horner vs. American Locomotive Company, 20; Hoffman vs. American Locomotive Company, 21; Carter vs. Hewitt and Thomas, B. H. Hord vs. Christopher, 22; W. F. Crouch vs. Chesapeake and Ohio, 23; Polly Coles vs. Seaboard Air Line, 24; Donnan vs. Coles, 25; John H. Lewis vs. Iron Company, 26; Tinley vs. Chesapeake and Ohio, 27; Patilla vs. Virginia Passenger and Power Company, 28.

Magistrates Angelo and Lewis, of Henrico county, who were here yesterday, the former having several important cases before him.

Two negroes, John Brown and "Buck" Hopkins, were before him, charged with highway robbery, and it is believed they were the men who participated in the robbery of the passengers on an excursion train returning from Buckroe Beach last week. Magistrate Angelo sent them on to the grand jury. Jeffrey Shelton, another negro, was charged with the same charge as fined ten dollars for disorderly conduct; the other evidence against him in connection with the robbery not being sufficient to send him to the grand jury, he was dismissed.

Mrs. Minnie Gault, who lives in Parkville, the county, was locked up in the jail in default of payment of $10 fine, imposed upon her yesterday by Magistrate Angelo. She was charged with receiving stolen goods from Charley Wells and Samuel Powell, two boys, and they were each fined $5 and costs. These were paid, and the boys were dismissed. Joseph Christian and Pearl Jones, two colored children, were before Magistrate Lewis yesterday, charged with stealing goods from the storehouse of L. M. Wolf. They were ordered to be whipped by their parents before they left the court, and this was done in good fashion, the screams being heard all over the building.

Joseph Yetch and Lucy Yetch were before Magistrate Lewis, charged with passing on the property of John Straith, in the West End. They were required to give $5 security for their good behavior.

Treasurer W. J. Todd returned home yesterday after having spent a week at Cape Henry. He was in fine spirits yesterday, and was burned as red as a lobster. He had one or two days' fine sport fishing in the Atlantic, and says he is now ready for hard work.
